

Member Code of Conduct Fitness Center

The JCC is committed to providing a safe and welcoming environment for all members, visitors and staff. The Torah guides us: Vinishmartem Mi'od Linafshotechem, take vigilance in protecting yourself. In keeping with this important Jewish and universal value, we always ask individuals to act appropriately when they are on our campus or participating in our programs. We ask you to commit to abiding by the following practices and policies:

- Practice physical distancing. There is no congregating in groups on the fitness center floor that are not a part of your immediate family, significant other or regular COVID-19 bubble.
- Follow check in procedures and protocol as instructed. Please wait patiently with a minimum 6 feet distance with the person in front of you.
- Be prepared truthfully answer a few questions, and have temperature taken at check in. Your initial visit will require you fill out a waiver and code of conduct but will not be required after your first visit. A daily health screening and temperature check will be required at each entry.
- Wear a mask on campus and be considerate of others.
- Sanitizing equipment both before and after use is required at all times.
- Certain equipment may not be available for use, such as bands, certain benches etc. Please inquire with the fitness center staff if you are unsure of equipment restrictions or have suggestions.
- Members must bring their own water. There will be no water stations available.
- Only members over the age of 11 will be permitted without adult supervision (18+).
- Locker rooms are for bathroom and handwashing only – showering and changing is only permitted for Aquatic activities at this time.
- The Fitness Center does not require reservations for use, but all uses of the pool, track and gymnasium require a reservation, each reservation is separate and cannot be combined with any other. Back-to-back reservation of time slots is prohibited. Lateness exceeding 10 minutes may forfeit reservations.
- The JCC, through its CEO and Board of Directors, reserves the right to remove from the premises any individual not abiding by these practices and policies or acting in an inappropriate manner and further reserves the right to cancel the membership of any such person.

I have read and understand this code of conduct. I agree to abide by the rules described above and understand I may be subject to removal if I violate any of these rules.

Signed by ALL adult members (18+) and on behalf of individual under the age of 18:
